

PCHS New Campus – Due to the high interest in the Grandparent Certificates offered during the holiday season, the New Campus Team has decided to extend the time period for grandparents to use these gift certificates. Also, since parents have requested using them in order to give donations in the name of their children, additional certificates are available to be picked up in the office at Pella Christian High.