Basis for Christian Education-Please read and sign

The basis of this Society is the infallible Word of God interpreted in accordance with the Forms of Unity of the Reformed Churches: the Heidelberg Catechism, the Belgic Confession, and the Canons of Dort.

The Society is committed to the following fundamental principles:

- a. That the instruction and education of children in the school as well as in the home must be in accordance with the Word of God;
- b. That a school is not an institution dependent on or belonging to the Church or the state, but that it depends on a community of parents and others who support Christian education as a covenantal responsibility.
- c. That throughout the course of the child's education the fundamental unity of the school, the home and the church must be maintained.

Parent Statement of Commitment

1. We (I) understand and agree with the mission and principles of Pella Christian High School as described in the Parent Student/Handbook.
2. We (I) understand that admission decisions are subject to the governing authorities of Pella Christian High School, which reserves the right in its sole discretion to accept or reject any student.
3. We (I) will actively support Pella Christian High School, the Board of Trustees, Administration, and staff through prayer and participation in school functions.
4. We (I) promise to maintain a Christian home where Christ is honored and where prayers and the reading of the Bible are a regular spiritual discipline.
5. We (I) will be actively involved in a Bible-believing church, regularly attend worship services with our children, and participate in the life of the church.
6. We (I) pledge to pay the required tuition and to support Pella Christian High School with our gifts as God leads us.

We, _____ agree with the statements above regarding the (parent(s) signature)

basis for Christian education and the Statement of Commitment.
