CLINIC DIRECTORS: KALANI & CHRIS MAHI

Kalani and his wife, Chris are the founders and co-directors of Club Iowa (CIA) where they coach and direct indoor and beach volleyball. Kalani also served as an assistant under Bobbi Petersen at UNI for 15 seasons. In that time the Panthers amassed a 374-131 record. Mahi has assisted in the development of 57 All-Conference Team members and 12 American Volleyball Coaches Association All-Americans. The Panthers also made nine MVC Tournament finals with six championships as well as making NCAA Tournament appearances 11 times.

Mahi has a wealth of collegiate and international coaching experience. Prior to joining the Panthers staff in 2004, Mahi served as head coach at the University of Oklahoma in the rugged Big 12 Conference as well as serving as an assistant coach at Illinois State (1998-2000). Prior to that, Mahi served as the head coach at Bradley University from 1995-97 and assistant at the University of Mississippi.

Mahi graduated from Graceland College (IA) where he was a collegiate club All-American, as well as team captain for the Yellow Jackets. He later played and coached professionally overseas. Mahi also worked for USA Volleyball National Development Camps in Lamoni, Iowa, for 12 years as a head coach, court coach and camp clinician. He has a USA Volleyball Coaching Accreditation (CAP) Level II Certification.

Mahi received his bachelor's degree from Graceland in 1987 in business administration and computer information systems. He received his master's in health, physical education and recreation from the University of Mississippi in 1990. A native of Kaneohe, Hawaii, Mahi and his wife, Chris, have three children, Tayah, Halia, and Nohea.
